State income tax withholding information for IRAs, including Roth IRAs:

State income tax withholding may also apply to the taxable portion of your benefit payment(s). The applicable state withholding rules are outlined below. If you reside in a state that gives you withholding options, you must provide the information or forms requested below. If you do not, we will apply state withholding based on your state's default rules. Please note that state income tax will apply even if your state allows you to elect out of withholding.

- If you reside in Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, or Oklahoma, state income tax withholding is required whenever federal income taxes are withheld. We will apply the state's default withholding rate to the taxable portion of your payments. You cannot elect out of state withholding when federal tax is withheld.
- If you reside in Arkansas, state withholding is required when federal taxes are withheld. We will apply the Arkansas default withholding rate to the taxable portion of your payments. However, you can elect out of Arkansas state withholding by providing us with a completed Form AR4P.
- If you reside in California, Georgia, Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Montana, New Jersey, New Mexico or Wisconsin, you may elect in or out of state withholding. If you elect to have state tax withheld, you must specify a whole dollar amount of at least $10 to withhold. We will not withhold state tax unless you enter an amount on Page 2 of this form. We will withhold the requested amount from your payment (whole dollar amount of at least $10).
- If you are an individual residing in Connecticut, state income tax withholding applies to your payments, and you must provide a completed Connecticut Form CT-W4P. If you do not provide a properly completed Form CT-W4P, we must withhold 6.99% on any payments. However, if you elect to receive a cash settlement, Connecticut withholding at the 6.99% rate is mandatory.
- If you reside in the District of Columbia, withholding applies only to cash settlements.
- If you reside in Michigan, state tax withholding requirements depend on your age and the amount of the payments; please provide a completed Michigan Form MI W-4P to claim any exemptions.
- If you reside in North Carolina or Oregon, you may elect to have state tax withheld or not to have state tax withheld. If you elect to have state income tax withheld we will apply the state's default withholding rate
- If you reside in Vermont, state withholding will apply whenever federal tax is withheld, unless you instruct us otherwise.
- If you reside in Alaska, Arizona, Florida, Hawaii, Kentucky, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington or Wyoming, either your state has no applicable income tax or the state has no applicable provision for withholding on IRA distributions. Therefore, we cannot withhold state tax.
- If you reside in a state not listed above, state tax withholding is completely voluntary. If you would like state taxes withheld, please provide a whole dollar amount of at least $10 or a percentage to be withheld on Page 2. We will withhold the requested dollar amount or percentage from each payment.

Withholding for non-U.S. persons – If you are not a U.S. person, the above federal and state withholding rules do not apply. Instead, we are required to withhold 30% of the taxable portion of your payments, unless your tax residence is in a country which has a tax treaty with the United States and that treaty provides an applicable exemption or reduced withholding rate. To claim the benefit of a tax treaty, you must provide a properly completed IRS Form W-8, which must include the foreign Tax Identifying Number issued by your country of tax residence or an explanation of why you do not have one. If you do not have a foreign Tax Identifying Number, you must include a U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) on the Form W-8 to claim treaty benefits. If you do not have a U.S. TIN, you may apply for one by submitting Form W-7 to the IRS. IRS Forms W-7 and W-8 and their instructions are available on the IRS website at www.irs.gov

If you are a beneficiary of another type of qualified account, other withholding rules may apply. Please consult a qualified tax professional for more information.
